

Recovery At A Glance–Jackson County July 27, 2021

(As of July 26, 2021, unless otherwise noted)

- 1,785 (+1) individuals and households have been approved for more than $27 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- More than $30.8 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 264 (+1) homeowners and renters and 18 businesses as of July 23.
- Survivors who applied with FEMA or have questions about the disaster assistance or the appeals process, can contact FEMA the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.

Housing Assistance:

- More than $22.6 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,318 (+3) homeowners.
- More than $4.8 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,495 (+1) applicants.
- 2,592 (+1) home inspections have been issued with 100 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- Jackson County was approved to participate in FEMA's Direct Temporary Housing Program along with four other counties: Linn, Lane, Lincoln and Marion Counties.
- FEMA continues restoring fire-damaged commercial parks located in Jackson County where additional temporary housing units may be placed.
- Restoration is taking place in phases. The parks being restored are as follow:
 - Totem Pole Mobile (Talent)-27 pads. Construction has been completed and the park has been occupied.
 - Rogue Valley Mobile Village (Medford)- 20 pads are ready for occupancy.
 - Coleman Creek (Phoenix)- 69 pads are in construction and will be for occupancy in August.
- Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.

FEMA

- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor’s efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

Public Assistance

- As of July 27, FEMA has obligated 52 Project Worksheets (+1) and more than $1.8 million in Public Assistance funding in Jackson County.

Recovery At A Glance–Jackson County

July 20, 2021

(As of July 19, 2021, unless otherwise noted)

- 1,784 (+1) individuals and households have been approved for more than $27 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- More than $30 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 263 (+4) homeowners and renters and 18 businesses as of July 16.
- Survivors who applied with FEMA or have questions about the disaster assistance or the appeals process, can contact FEMA the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.

Housing Assistance:

- More than $22.5 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,315 (+1) homeowners.
- More than $4.8 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,494 (+1) applicants.
- 2,591 (+1) home inspections have been issued with 99 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- Jackson County was approved to participate in FEMA's Direct Temporary Housing Program along with four other counties: Linn, Lane, Lincoln and Marion Counties.
- FEMA continues restoring fire-damaged commercial parks located in Jackson County where additional temporary housing units may be placed.
- Restoration is taking place in phases. The parks being restored are as follow:
 - Totem Pole Mobile (Talent)–27 pads. Construction has been completed and the park has been occupied.
 - Rogue Valley Mobile Village (Medford)- 20 pads are ready for occupancy and could be ready for license-in sometime in the next weeks.
 - Coleman Creek (Phoenix)- 69 pads are in construction and could be ready for occupancy sometime in the month of August.
- Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).

FEMA

- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.
- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

Public Assistance

- As of July 20, FEMA has obligated 51 Project Worksheets and more than $1.7 million in Public Assistance funding in Jackson County.

Recovery At A Glance–Jackson County July 13, 2021

(As of July 12, 2021, unless otherwise noted)

- 1,783 (+1) individuals and households have been approved for more than $27 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- More than $30 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 259 homeowners and renters and 18 businesses as of July 9.
- Survivors who applied with FEMA or have questions about the disaster assistance or the appeals process, can contact FEMA the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.

Housing Assistance:

- More than $22.5 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,314 (+1) homeowners.
- More than $4.8 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,493 (no change) applicants.
- 2,590 (no change) home inspections have been issued with 100 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- Jackson County was approved to participate in FEMA's Direct Temporary Housing Program along with four other counties: Linn, Lane, Lincoln and Marion Counties.
- FEMA continues restoring fire-damaged commercial parks located in Jackson County where additional temporary housing units may be placed.
- Restoration is taking place in phases. The parks being restored are as follow:
 - Totem Pole Mobile (Talent)-27 pads. Construction has been completed and the park has been occupied.
 - Rogue Valley Mobile Village (Medford)- 20 pads are in construction and could be ready for occupancy sometime in the month of July.
 - Coleman Creek (Phoenix)- 69 pads are in construction and could be ready for occupancy sometime in the month of August.
- Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).

FEMA

- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.
- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

Public Assistance

- As of July 13, FEMA has obligated 50 Project Worksheets and more than $1.7 million in Public Assistance funding in Jackson County.

Recovery At A Glance–Jackson County

June 1, 2021

(As of May 31, 2021, unless otherwise noted)

- 1,773 individuals and households have been approved for more than $27 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- More than $30 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 257 homeowners and renters and 18 businesses as of May 28.
- Survivors who applied with FEMA or have questions about the disaster assistance or the appeals process, can contact FEMA the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.

Housing Assistance:

- More than $22.3 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,305 homeowners.
- More than $4.7 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,486 applicants.
- 2,576 home inspections have been issued with 99 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- Jackson County was approved to participate in FEMA's Direct Temporary Housing Program along with four other counties: Linn, Lane, Lincoln and Marion Counties.
- FEMA plans to restore fire-damaged commercial parks located in Jackson County where additional temporary housing units may be placed. Currently, three commercial parks are being restored for use, this is a labor-intensive process. These sites could be completed as early as June.
- Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.
- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

FEMA

Public Assistance

- As of June 1, FEMA has obligated 37 Project Worksheets and more than $1.2 million in Public Assistance funding in Jackson County.

Recovery At A Glance–Jackson County May 18, 2021

(As of May 17, 2021, unless otherwise noted)

- 1,772 individuals and households have been approved for more than $27 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- Nearly $30 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 257 homeowners and renters and 18 businesses as of May 14.
- Survivors who applied with FEMA or have questions about the disaster assistance or the appeals process, can contact FEMA the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.

Housing Assistance:

- More than $22.3 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,303 homeowners.
- More than $4.7 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,482 applicants.
- 2,572 home inspections have been issued with 99 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- Jackson County has been approved to participate in FEMA's Direct Temporary Housing Program along with four other counties: Linn, Lane, Lincoln and Marion Counties.
- FEMA has plans to provide additional mobile temporary housing units in established Jackson County parks. Preparing these sites for occupancy can be a labor-intensive process, it is expected that these sites could be completed as early as June.
- Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.
- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

Public Assistance

- As of May 18, FEMA has obligated 31 Project Worksheets and more than $1.2 million in Public Assistance funding in Jackson County.

FEMA

Recovery At A Glance– Jackson County Feb. 23, 2021

(As of Feb. 22, 2021, unless otherwise noted)

- Applicants should stay in touch with FEMA to keep their recovery on track. Missing or incorrect information could result in delays in receiving assistance.
- Survivors can stay in touch the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.
- 1,730 individuals and households have been approved for nearly $26 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- More than $29.4 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 252 homeowners and renters and 17 businesses as of Feb 19.

Housing Assistance:

- Nearly $21.3 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,246 homeowners.
- More than $4.6 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,459 applicants.
- 2,516 home inspections have been issued with 99 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- FEMA continues the licensing-in of eligible survivor families from Jackson, Lane, Lincoln, Linn and Marion counties into temporary housing units. Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.
- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

Public Assistance

- As of Feb. 23, disaster-wide, FEMA has obligated 46 Project Worksheets and more than $146 million in Public Assistance funding.

FEMA

Recovery At A Glance– Jackson County Jan. 19, 2021

(As of Jan. 18, 2021, unless otherwise noted)

- Applicants should stay in touch with FEMA to keep their recovery on track. Missing or incorrect information could result in delays in receiving assistance.
- Survivors can stay in touch the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.
- While the deadline to apply with FEMA has passed, late applications may be accepted on a case-by-case basis.
- 1,700 individuals and households have been approved for more than $24.9 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- More than $28.8 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 247 homeowners and renters and 16 businesses as of Jan 15.

Housing Assistance:

- More than $20.4 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,207 homeowners.
- More than $4.5 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,444 applicants.
- 2,483 home inspections have been issued with 99 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- FEMA continues the licensing-in of eligible survivor families from Jackson County into temporary housing units.
- Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.
- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

FEMA

Recovery At A Glance– Jackson County Dec. 22, 2020

(As of Dec. 21, 2020, unless otherwise noted)

- The Nov. 30 deadline to apply for FEMA disaster assistance has passed, but help is still available. Applicants should stay in touch with FEMA to keep their recovery on track. Missing or incorrect information could result in delays in receiving assistance.
- Survivors can stay in touch the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.
- While the deadline to apply with FEMA has passed, late applications may be accepted on a case-by-case basis.
- 1,658 individuals and households have been approved for nearly $24 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- More than $26 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 224 homeowners and renters and 13 businesses as of Dec. 18.

Housing Assistance:

- More than $19 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,149 homeowners.
- More than $4.4 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,427 applicants.
- 2,441 home inspections have been issued with 99 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- FEMA has begun licensing-in of eligible survivor families from Jackson County into temporary housing units.
- Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).
- The units are placed in commercial parks or in group sites that will be constructed by FEMA for this purpose.
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.
- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

FEMA

Recovery At A Glance– Jackson County Dec. 7, 2020

(As of Dec. 4, 2020, unless otherwise noted)

- The Nov. 30 deadline to apply for FEMA disaster assistance has passed, but help is still available. Applicants should stay in touch with FEMA to keep their recovery on track. Missing or incorrect information could result in delays in receiving assistance.
- Survivors can stay in touch the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.
- While the deadline to apply with FEMA has passed, late applications may be accepted on a case-by-case basis.
- 1,616 individuals and households have been approved for nearly $22 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- Nearly $24 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 204 homeowners and renters and 10 businesses.

Housing Assistance:

- Nearly $18 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,093 homeowners.
- More than $4 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,392 applicants.
- 2,378 home inspections have been issued with 99 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- FEMA has begun licensing-in of eligible survivor families from Jackson County into temporary housing units.
- Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).
- The units are placed in commercial parks or in group sites that will be constructed by FEMA for this purpose.
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.
- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

FEMA

Recovery At A Glance– Jackson County Nov. 24, 2020

(As of Nov. 22, 2020, unless otherwise noted)

- The deadline to apply with FEMA for disaster assistance is Nov. 30. Survivors may apply by visiting DisasterAssistance.gov, checking the FEMA mobile app, or by calling 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). The toll-free telephone lines operate 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. PST, seven days a week.
- 1,571 individuals and households have been approved for nearly $20.6 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- Nearly $21 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 179 homeowners and renters and eight businesses as of Nov. 20.

Housing Assistance:

- Nearly $16.7 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 1,033 homeowners.
- Nearly $3.9 million in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 1,371 applicants.
- 2,300 home inspections have been issued with 99 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- Jackson County has been approved to participate in FEMA's Direct Temporary Housing Program.
- Survivors do not apply for Direct Temporary Housing, rather FEMA will contact applicants who are eligible and meet the criteria established for the program.
- FEMA is contacting eligible survivors to determine their interest and explain the program. Based on the information provided by the applicant, FEMA determines the type of housing that will best meet the needs of each survivor's family.
- Assistance is available for up to 18 months from the date of the disaster declaration (Sept. 15, 2020 through March 15, 2022) while survivors work toward their long-term housing solution.

Outreach to Survivors:

- The External Outreach Site at Central High School, 815 South Oakdale Ave., Medford, OR 97501, closed Nov. 21 and assisted 1,237 visitors.
- There have been two Speaker's Bureau events in Jackson County, providing information regarding FEMA programs throughout disaster-affected communities.

FEMA